

THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOUTHEAST WORLD HISTORY ASSOCIATION

OCTOBER 24-25, 2020

Virtual Conference

Hosted by

CATALYSTS OF SOCIAL CHANGE

October 24, 2020

ALL TIMES ARE EASTERN DAYLIGHT TIME

9:00–10:15 am: Movements, Minorities, and Migration as Catalysts of Social Change

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e4a875f3ceb13f882caa4253f42ccf3c6>

Nick Di Liberto, Moderator

SEWHA President

Mapping Sociocultural Legacies of the Naxalbari Movement, 1967–1985

Madhulagna Halder

Jawaharlal Nehru University (New Delhi)

The Minority Question: An Analysis of Gender, Human Rights and Subalternity in Colonial and Postcolonial South Asia through the Figure of the ‘Mahari-Devadasi’

Shriya Patnaik

Graduate Institute of International and Development (Geneva)

The Strange Form of Reverse Chain Migration during the Great Depression:

Mexicans and Chinese Go Home...or try to

Dorothea Hoffman

Appalachian State University

10:30 am –12:00 pm: Cross-Cultural Trade as Catalyst of Social Change

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e1c69f9ebdb4eff4ef286416c75617b71>

Masako Racel, Moderator

Kennesaw State University

Megaliths and Social Change: A Reinterpretation

Michael Seth

James Madison University

A Regional Complex: Colonial Business Networks in Boston, New York, and Philadelphia

Jeremy Land

University of Jyväskylä and Helsinki University

The Rise and Fall of the American Sandalwood Trade, 1790–1832

Eric Oakley

Kennesaw State University

Canaling the World Economy: The Panama Canal and Argentina’s Economic Decline, 1914–1929

Jordan Buchanan

University of Cambridge

Lunch Break, 12:00–12:30 pm

12:30–1:45 pm: Negotiating the Postwar World: Ireland, Egypt, and Czechoslovakia, 1919

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e0ab03ba3c2ceed5c10017011cb1d4f01>

Eric Oakley, Moderator
Kennesaw State University

No Man's Land Endures: The Pursuit of Irish Independence in the Aftermath of World War I

Mandy Link
University of Texas at Tyler

Re-Imagining Triumph: Egypt, Nationalism, and the 1919 Uprising

Christopher S. Rose
Saint Edward's University

Undefined Equality: Minorities in the First Czechoslovak Republic, 1918–1938

Shelby Wise
University of Texas at Tyler

2:00–3:15 pm: Time, History, Experience and Social Change

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e386117ab270b898a021f3a49165a2c3a>

Ian Christopher Fletcher, Moderator
Georgia State University

Salman Rushdie, Michael Johns, and Me in 1980s Nicaragua: Divergent and Contrasting Experiences on Catalysts of Social Change

Alan LeBaron
Kennesaw State University

An Analysis of the Historiographic Tradition Surrounding the Extraordinary Chambers in the Cambodian Courts

Anthony W. Baker
Indiana State University

Time and History in Hao Jingfang's Folding Beijing

Sungshin Kim
University of North Georgia

3:30–4:15 pm: Colonial Occupation and Resistance as Catalysts of Post-Revolutionary Social Change

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e0edaf960769a3ebf8dd9b2e2a3b3992e>

H. Micheal Tarver, Moderator
Arkansas Tech University

The Relationship between Algerians and Pied-Noirs in Post-Revolutionary Algerian Society and its Effect on Franco–Algerian Relations

Harrison Wedgeworth
The Citadel

How the Japanese Occupation of Korea Affected Korean Society, Culture, and Politics through the 21st Century

Nicholas Fricchione
The Citadel

4:30–5:15 pm: Keynote Address

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e0561a035d23d2d1cdd9235ace739f532>

Nick Di Liberto, Moderator
SEWHA President

African Art Restitution, Museums, and the Politics of Heritage: Lessons from the Belgian-Congolese Case

Sarah Van Beurden
Ohio State University

The keynote address is sponsored by the World History Bulletin and the Arkansas Tech University Department of History and Political Science

Spring/Summer 2020 whb.org Vol. XXIV, No. 1

World History Bulletin

Issue Focus:
Teach in the Time of Corona(virus)

ATU™ ARKANSAS TECH
UNIVERSITY

OCTOBER 25, 2020

9:00–10:15 am: Slavery, Abolition, and Identity as Catalysts of Social Change

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e301a060fc2b31b7711476f0c3e089281>

Jeremy Land, Moderator

University of Jyväskylä

Against ‘the Fiend-Delighting Trade’: Amelia Opie and Romantic Abolitionism

Ramit Samaddar

Jadavpur University, India

Jean Price-Mars, Haiti, and the Transformation of Black Identity

William H. Alexander

Norfolk State University

Toussaint Louverture in Oklahoma

Erica Johnson Edwards

Francis Marion University

10:30–11:45 am: World-Ecologies of Change: Real Abstractions, Environment-Making, and Capitalism’s Drive Towards Endless Accumulation

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=ed86180e217f96603f404de6a2c1c862c>

Jason W. Moore, Moderator

SUNY Binghamton

Capitalocene is a Polemocene:

Power, War-Making, and Environment-Making in the Periodization of Capitalism’s Longue Durée

John Peter Antonacci

SUNY Binghamton

Disease and the Transition from Feudalism to Capitalism

Jacqueline Frazer

SUNY Binghamton

Civilizing the Immigrant Worker: the Americanization Project at the Dawn of the Long Twentieth Century

Diana C. Gildea

Lund University, Sweden

11:45 am–12:15 pm: SEWHA Business Meeting

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e0e942b65df84188fdcd8b4206774170b>

Lunch Break, 12:15–12:45 pm

12:45–2:30 pm: The Role of World History and History Education in Public Debates on Social Change

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e5683e34fb5101674fd08f11927b5e0d0>

Please download the Stanhope Presentation here: <https://www.sewha.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/Catalyst-for-Social-Change.pdf>

Sungshin Kim, Moderator
University of North Georgia

Global History Lessons: Contexts Past & Present in Today's Transformations in Higher Ed

Laura J. Mitchell
President, World History Association

Does World History Have the Tools to Transform the World's Largest Confederate Monument into a Place of Learning and Reconciliation?

Sally Stanhope
Atlanta History Center

The Things They Carried: A Refugee Project

Lisa Camichos
Hickory High School, Hickory, North Carolina

Movement, Moment, Project: The Fifth Pan-African Congress of 1945

Ian C. Fletcher
Georgia State University

2:45–4:00 pm: Topics in World History

Session Link: <https://atu.webex.com/atu/onstage/g.php?MTID=e6f281ff0e9c24992de90d432388bf3c5>

Ralph Covino, Moderator
Girls Preparatory School

Teachable Moments: Brazil in Atlantic and World History

Suzanne Marie Litrel
American Historical Association

Flames, Floods, and Fireworks: Lessons from Cleveland's Disastrous Summer of 1969

Kevin Hogg
Mount Baker Secondary School Cranbrook, British Columbia

Presenting the Power of a Prince: Changing Images of Gender and Rule during the Reign of Elizabeth I

Joshua Durbin
Pellissippi State Community College